Key Issue A: Changemanagement

The aims of Inclusion and Diversity...

• challenge people and organisations to change attitudes
• require new competences, skills and resources
• lead to new communicational standards
• need restructuring and reorganizing learning environments
• set higher demands for personal management
Key Issue B: Leading Strategies

Leading organisations in times of fast changes means...

• to set and reset aims according to new developments
• to restructure resources and funding to new aims and expectations
• to implement closest links to companies, industry and other partners
• to create a smart and efficient quality management
• to design stable structures for staff on the one hand and flexible process management on the other
Key Issue C: Personal Management = D&I Management

New demands on personal management...

• a positive attitude to Inclusion and Diversity
• expand to more flexible individual solutions
• include individual offers for personal development
• require close connection, liability and participation
• should appreciate the chances of successful Diversity
Organisation of workshop

Brief Instructions
Organisation of Workshop

• Share experiences!
• Get peer support!
• Gain ideas for your own organisation!
Step one

Get together into three sub groups

The more mixed – the better

Elect a lead person who will present back to the Workshop plenum
Step two

Discuss your Key Issue

Identify 3 main points

Each referring to:
- Your reflections
- Your conclusions
- Your solutions or examples of good practices
Step three

• Briefly present to the Workshop plenary and share
• 3 main points in 5 minutes
• Take your feedback and answer questions
Step four: Final Conclusions

Summing up all reported main points can we draw a final conclusion and identify a key message for the Conference plenary?
Network works!
Thank You 😊
