From Lisbon to Fátima and back

Here are the two best options to reach and leave Fátima, from Lisbon's airport, and accommodation.

1) Metro + bus.

When you arrive at the Arrivals lounge, after picking up your luggage, turn right and head to Metro (M signal)

<https://www.metrolisboa.pt/en/> – the station is immediately next to the exit (looks like a red pipe coming out from the earth).

You can buy the tickets at the automatic machines. Lisbon's metro works with a rechargeable card, which you have to buy on your first journey; when returning, you just have to add one more journey. There are two transport hubs in Lisbon: Sete Rios, the biggest one, but further to the airport, and Oriente, just three Metro stops from the airport. Hence, let's check both ends:

<https://www.metrolisboa.pt/en/travel/>

1.1) If you choose Sete Rios: after validating it, head to "S. Sebastião" (last stop); leave the train, look for the signs pointing to "Reboleira". Choose this direction and take its train, going out on the second stop – "Sete Rios / Jardim Zoológico"

Leave the station, following the signs "Terminal Rodoviário" (Bus Terminal). It's right next to it, as this is a transport hub. Inside you can buy the tickets to Fátima bus terminal – they leave almost every hour and it's the first stop – or you can buy it online, as well as checking the schedules: <https://www.rede-expressos.pt/en>
The cost depends on the seats you choose and the time.

1.2) Other possibility is to travel by Metro to "Oriente", three stops from the Airport. This is a huge transport hub (metro, train and bus), which also has bus connections to Fátima.

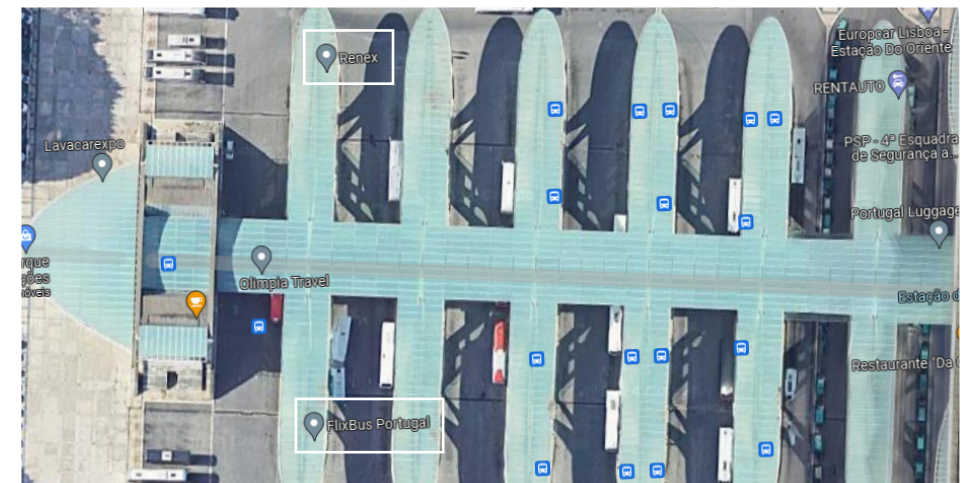

There are two tickets offices (named RENEX), on both ends of the terminal to buy the tickets, if you haven't bought it online, and then ask the right lane to take the bus – usually the buses leave from the last lines (50 and above). You can use the same link:

<https://www.rede-expressos.pt/en>.

This company <https://www.flixbus.pt>, operates also from "Oriente" and "Sete Rios". The cost depends on the seats you choose and the time.

It takes around 1 hour and 15 minutes from Lisbon to Fátima, on the highway.

From Fátima Bus Terminal you can take a taxi to the hotel, or walk. Close to the meeting we'll suggest a couple of hotels close to the school.

2) Rent a car

There are several companies inside Lisbon's airport. The airport is located right next to the main highway (AE 1), that connects Lisbon to Porto, and it has an exit to Fátima.
